W. C. Martin.

Again the Death Angel has visited a Hondo home; again a pall of gloom and sadness over-shadows the lives of a widowed mother and five orphaned children.

Willie Carl Martin was born July 31, 1885; and died Tuesday August 10, 1920, aged 35 years and 10 days.

Deceased had been in failing health for the past six months and in spite of all that medical science and attentive nursing could do the malady that was sapping his vitality could not be stayed, and at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday morning he fell peacefully asleep. Deceased never fully recovered from an attack of influenza contracted when that scourge swept over the country more than a year ago, and his death undoubtedly was primarily due to that sickness.

Deceased was a native of Medina County and passed his entire life among the people of this section, and leaves a host of life long friends who are deeply grieved over his untimely passing.

On January 14th, 1899, he was married to Miss Louisa Mamma, who, together with five children, four sons and one daughter, survive him. His mother, Mrs. George Bendele, Sr., Mrs. Ben O'finger, a half sister, and George Bendele, Jr., a half brother also survive him.

The nation, the state, the county and community are the losers when a good citizen passes and particularly so when that citizen had not yet reached the prime of life, and in the passing of this citizen this community is poorer and his memory will long be held in esteem by all who knew him.

The funeral was held at 4:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, his body being laid in the Hondo cemetery, Rev. J.
M. Alexander, pastor of the Methodist church, conducting the services in the presence of a large number of friends who had congregated to pay a last tribute of respect to the departed.

To the stricken widow and orphaned children, as well as to the other immediate relatives whose hearts are filled with grief over the passing of their loved one, a host of friends offer condolence in this their hour of sadness.

Joseph A Zimmermann.

Mr. Joseph A. Zimmermann, aged 67 years, died at his residence, 2053
Constance St., New Orleans, La., Sunday, July 25, 1920, at 11:50 p. m.
Mr. Zimmermann was born at Castro-ville, Texas, Sept. 15, 1853, where he spent his boyhood days after which he moved to New Orleans, La., where he engaged in business and was at the time of his death president of the following organizations: Zimmermann's Building Specialties Co. (L'd); New Orleans Quartette Club; New Orleans Tile Contractors Association, and a few other organizations. He is survived by six children, two sons, Eugene and John; four daughters, Mamie, Theresa, Regina and Mrs.
Lawrence Cairy, all of New Orleans and two sisters, Mrs. Isabella Wiatrek of San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Rosa Ashley of El Paso, Texas. Mr. Zimmermann has many relatives and friends in and around Castroville.

The Anvil Herald extends its sincerest sympathies to the bereaved children and sisters.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. John Neumann of the lower Hondo section had the misfortune to lose their newly born baby by death Tuesday, August 10th. The funeral took place next day, Wednesday, in the new Hondo Cemetery, Rev. A. Falkenberg officiating at the grave.

The Medina Oil Development Co. has been busy this week setting casing.
The drill has reached a depth of 250 feet and oil and gas pressure is increasing daily. Manager Brown has several gallons of oil taken from the well in his office in the Leinweber building, and Doubting Thomases are invited to visit his office and take a look at it. Its real stuff. He expected the casing job to be completed yesterday and thought active drilling would be resumed today.

After the chief of the Federal prohibition enforcement officers for the San Antonio district, Capt. T. R. Stevic, had been arrested Monday, the chief of police of San Antonio, Al Mussey, was arrested Thursday on a charge of possessing and transporting liquor.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me. After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

An Old Fault Finder.

An irritable and fault finding disposition is often caused by indigestion. A man with good digestion and bowels that act regularly is usually good natured. When troubled with indigestion or constipation take Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Mrs. A. A. Camp and son and daughter of Laredo visited Mrs. L. E. Bhickaller last week.—Pearsall Leader.

The Best Physic.

When you want a pleasant physic try Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. They are highly prized by people who have become acquainted with their good qualities. They only cost a quarter.

Ira A. Durrenberger died Sunday.

The news was received in Pearsall Sunday afternoon of the sudden death of Ira A. Durrenberger, County Farm Demonstration Agent of Frio County. His death was caused from heart trouble and asthma.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes," says Martin Boyd, of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since."

Mrs. S. C. Roberts was seriously burned Monday. She was cooking and tripped and fell, knocking a kettle of hot water over, which poured over her body, causing a very painful burn. She was at the ranch when the accident occurred and was brought to town immediately for medical attention.—Pearsall Leader.

A Great Remedy.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont. "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

I Owe My Life to PE-RU-NA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently, so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me! so I cannot praise it too highly."

A Traveling Man's Experience.

You may learn something from the following by W. H. Ireland, a traveling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1888 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place, a well man."

MAIL FROM THE FESSIMIST Unkind Remark Might Have Tended to Decide the Happiness of Prospective Bridegroom.

He was a young man who had come into town to be married. At the station he inquired for a minister and the names and addresses of several were given him. But all of them seemed so far from the station that he asked for one nearer.

"Well, I don't know of any nearer than this one," the informer pointed to one number. "But you'll find a justice of the peace just about a block from here, son."

The young man shook his head. "I don't want a justice of the peace," he said. "I don't like the sound of that."

A man leaning against the window rose.

"Oh, you won't mind so much afterward about that sound," he said. "This affair is goin' to mark the end of all the peace you've ever had."

WIFE WAS READY FOR HIM
Had Thought Up Somewhat Disconcerting Answer to Question That Got on Her Nerves.

An Indianapolis man is fond of corn but will not eat peas. His wife on the contrary, likes peas and does not care much for corn. That is one source of irritation in their family. Another is his salutation the minute he enters the house. It consists of the question:
"Hello, cook, what's the feed today?"

The other evening she was tired and she had already decided to teach him a lesson. One part was that she was no longer going to cook just what he liked; the other was to vary his greeting to her. So when he opened the door and called out: "Hello, cook, what's the feed?" she was ready for him.

Back floated her disconcerting answer: "Corn for the hogs and peas for the people."

Some Few Preliminaries.
Mrs. Brownjones couldn't help feeling interested in the approaching marriage of her servant, although she was really very sorry to lose the girl.

"And you have made all the preparation for your wedding, Mary?" she asked one day, when the time of parting drew near. "You leave me in 10 days, don't you?"

"That all depends, mum," replied the girl brightly.

"Depends on what?" exclaimed the mistress, hope born again in her heart.

"Well, it depends if I can be ready in time," Mary exclaimed. "I've got to buy me trosso and get me intended a job, and buy him a new suit of clothes, and arrange for some regular charring for meself. When I've done all that, I am going to name the happy day."

Grandpa Could See for Himself.
Grandpa had a birthday and daddy gave Junior a box of cigars to give grandpa, saying, "What are you going to say when you give this to grandpa, Junior?"

Junior replied, "Happy birthday, grandpa."

"Yes," said father, "and many of them."

Junior looked reprovingly at his father and said, "Oh, no, daddy, I musn't say that. He's supposed to open it and then he'll see there's many of them."

The Bachelor Tax.
George Ade, apropos of the French bachelor tax of 10 per cent, said at the Chicago Athletic club:

"This tax will no more cause bachelors to link up than the remark of old Lusher did."

"Young man," said old Lusher, "you ought to marry. A cozy home, a loving wife, beautiful children—there's nothing like it on earth. And then, above all, you have the sweet recollection of your jolly bachelor days."

Mrs. Pester—There's a movement on foot to compel husbands to pay salaries to their wives the same as to

ANNA CASE
"American"
By ROY T. BURKE

NEW YORK.—Wherever there is music in America the name of Anna Case is known.

Women speak of her God-given voice, her charm of manner, her personality, and those little things that only a woman can appreciate; the way she wears her gown, those subtle accomplishments that make one woman a queen where other women are the judges. And men delight to tell of her loveliness, the beauty of her smile, the tenderness in her eyes. But back of all those charms is one God-given gift that has made her famous, a heritage similar to that of Lincoln, Roosevelt, and many great Americans.

ANNA CASE

I have seen great audiences courteously applaud celebrated singers on a program of noted artists, but when Anna Case entered, every person in the audience rose and shouted with all the fervor of the rooting section at a championship football game, "Case! Case!
Case!" What caused that?

My first impression of Anna Case has been a lasting one. Of all operatic and concert sopranos I have met, she is most truly the American. If Anna Case had not been gifted with one of the most exquisite voices in America, if she were not one of the most beautiful women on the concert platform, she would still be a dominant figure in any gathering, she would still draw multitudes of admirers by that most wonderful possession —her determined optimism—that breathes the spirit of true Americanism. That heritage, nurtured and matured by an early life of sacrifice, is the secret of her success.

In the little New Jersey home where she was born, the music world she wanted to know was frowned on. But she was an American, and she earned her way. By day she traveled from home to home in that little community giving lessons to reluctant little fingers and in the evening she studied a course of training that she herself had planned. She sang in churches, at festivals, and finally, unknown and practically penniless, but rich in grit, determination and Americanism, came to New York, determined to be somebody in the music world.

The dress she wore at her first concert recital in New York, she borrowed, but she herself earned every cent that paid her way to fame.

The world now knows of her success as an opera singer and concert recitalist and as a featured artist for the phonograph. Homes that love good music possess a phonographic re-creation of her voice; every true music lover would be ashamed to say that he had not heard her in concert recital.

But few think when they see her on the concert platform, the tall, graceful American woman, applauded by thousands, that she was once a lonely, often discouraged, penniless little girl who drove a faithful old horse in sunshine and rain from little home to little home to earn the pennies that meant her success today.

Few know that this world-applauded star once deprived herself of everything but absolute necessities so that she might meet the weekly singing bill and then practice the new lesson until the midnight hour. Few know that the weary little head often rested almost till morning on the piano keys in the plain little New Jersey village home of her childhood.

Her life is typical of the life of her own birthland. Her courage, her grit, her never ending determination to accomplish her ideals, her constant sacrifices overcame every obstacle and made her what she is today—Anna Case.

"Why I Put Up With Rats for Years," Writes N. Windsor, Farmer.

"Years ago I bought some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. It so scared us that we suffered a long time with rats until my neighbor told me about RAT-SNAP. That's the sure rat killer and a safe one."

Messrs. C. W. Gilliam and J. G. Heyen returned this week from a visit to Cuatro Ciénegas, Coahuila, Mexico, Mr. Gilliam coming in Tuesday, Mr. Heyen following a day later. Ostensibly they went over into the Aztec country on a prospecting expedition, but a trip of some forty miles up the Salinas river failed to reveal anything desirable, and they left country as they found it. Mr. Gilliam says he and Mr. Heyen made themselves sick eating grapes at Cuatro Ciénegas, but we do not take much stock in that statement. Grapes are not noted for making people sick, but immoderate indulgence in the juice of the grape is calculated to develop a headache and a dark brown taste. Cuatro Ciénegas is the center of the wine-distilling industry in Mexico.

House Ants.

There are a number of species of ants which infest our homes but the chief offender is the small red ant which passes its entire existence in houses. The larvae and pupae (commonly called the "eggs") are minute, whitish, oval objects which are produced in enormous numbers by the solitary queen mother. They are deposited in the walls or under the flooring only during the late spring and the summer months.

The ant is not inimical to health nor is there evidence at present that it acts as a host to transmit the cause of disease. Its chief claim for consideration and destruction is its mere presence in articles of food, particularly sugar, preserves, and other sweets. When one ant has discovered such foods, the news is quickly spread and soon the supply is covered or filled with an entire colony.

In order to get rid of such invaders it is of first importance to keep food products in tight receptacles and to remove sugar and sweetmeats scattered by children. Several methods to destroy them have been suggested, and as temporary measures, when the nest cannot be located, the following may suffice:

Moisten a sponge with sweetened water; when filled with ants, drop into boiling water.

An ingenious method has been described as follows: A groove large enough for the passage of a single ant, is made in an ordinary cork. The bottle is partly filled with sweetened water and a thread moistened with the preparation passes from the floor to the passage through the cork. When the ant within the bottle is once gorged with food he cannot get out. Thousands may be trapped in this way. Several of the traps may be prepared and enough time allowed to elapse for the ants to swarm into the openings.

However, the only thorough extermination is the destruction of the colony and its nest. There is no means of locating the latter, except by following the ants back to their point of disappearance. Bisulphid of carbon in liberal quantities (about two ounces) is then poured into the region of the nest. This substance is so penetrating that its work is thorough, if the nest is properly located.

The small black ant (Monomorium minimum) and the pavement ant (Pentamorium caspium) sometimes become house nuisances, through the colonies are under stones, in the ground and under pavements. The latter are recognized by the small pyramids of grains of earth which surround the excavations. The destruction of the colonies by kerosene or carbon bisulphid usually exterminates these species.

CAUTION: The fumes of bisulphid of carbon are explosive in the presence of any fire or open flame. Care should be taken that none are present where the chemical is used.

HARDLY KNEW HER AT FIRST SIGHT.

Mrs. White's Neighbors Are All Talking About Her Wonderful Recovery.

"When my wife began taking Tanlac she weighed only ninety-five pounds; now she weighs one hundred and forty-three and her wonderful recovery is the talk of our neighborhood," said Ben White, of 111 Crescent Ave., Peoria, Ill.

"Mrs. White has been suffering from stomach trouble and nervousness eighteen years," he continued, "and for a long time had been unable to leave the place. We spent all the money I could get for treatments and medicines but she never got any better. She was a complete nervous and physical wreck and I have seen her nearly die with cramps in her stomach and after eating she could hardly breathe for the gas. Headaches drove her nearly distracted and I have stayed home with her weeks at a time, fearing she would never pull through, for she was getting worse all the time.

"After hearing so much talk about Tanlac I bought some for my wife and in just a few days she could eat and sleep better. She has now taken about twelve bottles, and is the very picture of health. Why, some of her friends hardly know her at first sight now. She is as well and happy as a person can be."

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow; in Castroville by Joseph Courand & Co.; and in Dunlay by Louis A. Haby.

THRIFTY PEOPLE HAPPY, SAYS PASTOR OF DALLAS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"I am grateful for thrift lessons taught me in my boyhood, and have been observing them ever since," said Dr. W. M. Anderson, Sr., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Dallas. "It will help the cause of the Lord if we impress thrift thoughts upon the minds of the people just now. Thrifty people are the happiest people, having no financial worries, they are prepared to work for the church. Are you able to save money? If so, you will succeed. The people should be informed as to Thrift and War Savings Stamps; they make saving easy and convenient."

AMENDMENT
RELATING TO TAXATION BY SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17.

Proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by exempting independent and common school districts from the limitation of a total tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows: (Creating a new Section 3.)

Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and a poll tax of one ($1.00) dollar on every inhabitant of this State, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto, there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount not to exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources, will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children attending the public free schools of this State; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the general funds of the State and the legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation; and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law may embrace parts of two or more counties. And the legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by general or special law.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1920, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that the limitation upon the amount of school district tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation shall not apply to independent or common school districts created by general or special law," and all those opposed to said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots "Against the amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing that the limitation upon the amount of school district tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation shall not apply to independent or common school districts created by general or special law."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation of said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 4. That the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many a Hondo Household.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Hondo readers.

Mrs. P. H. Renken, tinsmith, Hondo, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have been used by others in my family with the best of results. My kidneys were disordered and acted irregularly. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and in this way I first became acquainted with their merits and started to use them. One box of Doan's entirely removed the trouble."

ALWAYS GETS GOOD RESULTS.

The above statement was given May 29, 1915, and on May 5, 1919, Mrs. Renken said: "I am just as firm a believer in Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I previously endorsed them. I use Doan's when my back or kidneys bother me and they always cure the attacks."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Renken had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Her Tragedy.

"What is it?"
"After she married that rich old curmudgeon the family physician told her he was as sound as a dollar and likely to last for the next 20 years."

OIL STOCK IS CERTIFICATE OF DEATH OF FRIENDSHIP

Brownwood, Texas—"Did you ever see a fancy engraved, printed-in-gold, death certificate?" asked a salesman of the occupant of an adjoining chair in the Southern Hotel last Sunday. "No?", he inquired, as his neighbor nodded a non-committal answer. "Well, here it is, look at it," he added, exhibiting a $100 stock certificate in an oil company.

"Did a well come in and somebody drop dead?" asked the neighbor.

"Not that you could notice it. You see a good customer of mine was organizing a company or something. Any way he wanted to sell the stock; I wanted to please him and bought it. Then the bottom fell out; no oil in a hundred miles of our lease. So this is the certificate of the death of our friendship. He hates to see me. I don't like to go in his store. Our friendship is dead and this is a certificate of its demise. I am out one hundred bucks and a customer—total loss and no salvage. My loss too, is not 'on the house'. Do you blame me for going into mourning?"

Then he lit his cigar and took a speculative draw or two; suddenly he asked, "Would you give me a War Savings Stamp for it?" His neighbor grinned, "Not on your life! But it certainly made a Christian of you. Yet why the War Savings Stamp? An oil speculator turning to War Savings Stamps is going some; what's the idea?" "Boy," said the salesman, "Got a boy at home. Got more sense than the old man. Gave him $100 on his birthday; he's got it yet, salted away. War Savings Stamps and such. I lost mine. But I'll be game and catch him yet. Wish I'd been taught 'safety first' in investments like he has. That's why I'm for the schools now good and strong, they are getting to be worth the money in this savings business alone even if they did not teach another thing in the world."

Don't let your children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish, puny or cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea—a harmless but safe laxative for children. 35c. W. H. Windrow.

ONE THING THEY OVERLOOKED

Investigation Might Have Saved Travelers a Weary All-Night Fight With Those Bats.

Two friends went for a country holiday and secured very comfortable quarters in a farm house. During their first night they were roused by the sound of something flopping about the room. Striking a match, they discovered a large bat.

After a chase, they caught the scared thing, and, being unable to open the window, just shut it away in the drawer of the dressing table.

They had just dozed off when there was another bat and another battle. This one joined the first in the drawer. The same thing happened again, until they had caught and imprisoned 16 bats. Then they got a little peace.

In the morning they invited the landlady up to view their bag. Opening the drawer, proudly they found there in one poor, weary bat, and the landlady laughed.

"I suppose you never thought there was no back to that old drawer?" she remarked.—London Answers.

SPECULATORS INCUR HEAVY LOSS SAYS DALLAS BANKER

"More than ninety-five out of every hundred dollars invested in oil stocks is a clear loss," said Nathan Adams, vice president of a Dallas bank with nearly $20,000,000 deposits. In other words, had every purchaser of $100 worth of oil stock bought just one War Savings Stamp and burned the remaining $95.82 of his money, the entire group would have more money on hand than it has today. The Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Certificates are guaranteed to be worth more any day than they cost; it is the nation's guarantee against the imagination of the stock salesman."

MORE THAN HE COULD STAND

Happy Homeward-Bound Fisherman Felt Called On to Denounce Claim of Supposed Rival.

He had fished all day and caught nothing, yet his heart was light and gay as he walked homeward. The bottle of "cold-defer" which he had taken out in the morning full now reposed—empty and dead—among the rushes by the river's brim.

As he wavered along the lane he sang happily, though quite out of tune, and the gray twilight was to him a rosy glow.

But presently he stopped and looked with owl-like gravity over the hedge at a scarecrow which stood in the field, its arms outstretched. And the angler shook his head.

"You're a liar!" he said sternly. "There never wash and never hash been a fish caught as big'sh that!"

Her Reason.

She had been a troublesome patron at the school since she came to the neighborhood. The room was too cold for her little daughter or it was too hot. The lessons were too hard and the teacher must give her extra aid. And on and on it went, the mother saying that she, as a superior patron of the building, should have preference over the lesser lights.

Then came a new demand. The note read as follows: "I wish the teacher to keep my Priscilla with her at recess. I don't want her to play with children who learn her to butcher up her English like the children in her room do."—Indianapolis News.

Why This Tire Will Not Skid

A glance at the distinctive tread of the Horse-Shoe Cord Tire will tell you why this tire is so remarkably anti-skid.

Each little shoe in the Horse-Shoe tread forms a near-vacuum that cleaves noiselessly to the road after the triangular edges of the tread have cleaned and scraped away the moisture.

Such a tread takes hold of the road with a stubborn grip that makes driving safe even on slippery pavements in cars that are notorious "skidders."

You will appreciate the unusual anti-skid qualities of the Horse-Shoe Cord Tire only after we prove them to you on a wet, slippery pavement. Let us give you a demonstration.
